

5 Year Limited Warranty

brookfield industries, inc.

brookfield industries, inc. warrants that the following Precision Engineered High Capacity Hinges listed below will perform satisfactory for a period of 5 years. This warranty is offered to the original purchaser and extended from the date the product was shipped. Any hinge not meeting the performance requirements as specified under normal operating conditions or found to have a material or workmanship defect will be replaced. The replacement hinge shall be the same model number as the defective hinge or a credit amount of equal value. Any defective hinge shall be evaluated ⁽¹⁾ prior to the replacement being shipped. In order to expedite the process, the customer may purchase a replacement hinge. Credits or reimbursements (including related shipping or labor ⁽²⁾ costs) will be issued after the evaluation process is completed:

All Series W, Series K, Series CPH and Series i hinges.

Excluded from this warranty:

- Any hinge exhibiting evidence of improper installation or installed not per our specifications.
- Any hinge exhibiting evidence of abnormal physical abuse or severe environmental conditions.
- Any hinge damaged by shipping

(1) The hinge shall be returned to brookfield industries, inc. or sufficient documentation submitted for us to review

(2) Any reimbursements for labor directly related to hinge replacement shall be a reasonable amount of labor cost (or an amount not to exceed) that is agreed upon by both parties. Travel expenses are excluded.
